Dear Friends,

“Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:” (Romans 1:19-20)

In mid-May I took my oldest son camping in preparation of his twelfth birthday. My intent was to present him with a vision of authentic manhood, to lay before him a path and a definition “to be a man” who will honor God with his life.

Where better to go for such a conversation than into the woods. As God describes in Romans 1, He has shown Himself and His eternal power through His created world.

We in Christian camping have the opportunity like none other to reach children with the Gospel and train them to serve Christ. Creation gives us ample substance to stand in awe of our Creator God and point children to Him.

At Camp Conquest we connect children to this creation and it’s Creator alongside loving counselors and supportive staff. What a powerful venue for reaching children for Christ.

Thank you for your gift to Camp Conquest this month. You are part of the eternal work of God in the hearts of young people. Thank you for your encouragement and support of our volunteers and staff as we stand alongside our young campers and look in wonder at His creation.

Serving with you,

Michael R. Gehlert
Executive Director
